ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Please join us either live or virtually, Wednesday, December 2nd for the 74th Annual Associated Taxpayers of Idaho Conference! As the kick-off to the 2021 legislative session, this conference is a can't-miss event.

The Conference Planning Committee has arranged an extraordinary group of speakers covering topics important to the Idaho taxpayer.

- State & Federal response to economic turmoil
- Changing tax policy
- Upcoming legislative initiatives

We will provide a preview of the challenges and opportunities the Idaho Legislature will face during the 2021 Legislative Session. Over 500 legislators, local elected officials, government entities and business leaders have attended in years past.

Join us live or virtually on December 2nd to learn where we—the State of Idaho and Associated Taxpayers of Idaho—have been and, more importantly, where we are headed in these rapidly evolving times.

This year's conference will cover some of the most impactful changes seen in decades. We look forward to your attendance and involvement.

Sincerely,

Val Nielsen, Chairman of the Board
Senior Director of Corporate Tax
J.R. Simplot Company

Miguel Legarreta, President
Associated Taxpayers of Idaho

About the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho

In 1946, a group of Idahoans formed an independent, nonpartisan, not-for-profit organization to work on behalf of Idaho's taxpayers.

Today, the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho remains the only statewide association encouraging effective and responsible government through research and public education.

ATI's broad-based membership ranges from individual taxpayers to large corporations. Get involved with Idaho tax policy by becoming a member.
