ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Please join us either live or virtually, Wednesday, November 30th for the 76th Annual Associated Taxpayers of Idaho Conference! As the unofficial kick-off to the 2022 legislative session, this conference is a can't-miss event.

The Conference Planning Committee has arranged an extraordinary group of speakers covering topics important to the Idaho taxpayer.

- In depth Economic perspectives
- Perspectives on Industry issues
- Revisiting tax fundamentals
- Upcoming legislative initiatives

We will provide a preview of the challenges and opportunities the Idaho Legislature will face during the 2023 Legislative Session. Legislators, local elected officials, government entities and business leaders will be in attendance.

Join us live or virtually on Wednesday, November 30th to learn where we—the State of Idaho and Associated Taxpayers of Idaho—have been and, more importantly, where we are headed in these uncertain times.

We look forward to your attendance and involvement.

Sincerely,

Jayson Ronk, Chairman of the Board
VP of Public Affairs
Blue Cross of Idaho

Miguel Legarreta, President
Associated Taxpayers of Idaho

About the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho

In 1946, a group of Idahoans formed an independent, nonpartisan, not-for-profit organization to work on behalf of Idaho's taxpayers.

Today, the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho remains the only statewide association encouraging effective and responsible government through research and public education.

ATT's broad-based membership ranges from individual taxpayers to large corporations, and we welcome your involvement.
